A WOMAN FOR

I have faith, courage . . .

. . . A handful of snow . . .

ALL SEASONS

... A daisy ...

... A ray of sun ...

FALL OF UNKNOWN BEGINNINGS

I have faith
and courage to meet the unknown --
But I have no guard against loneliness . . .

Me -- Bad Breath!

Who's playing possum?

These calories are delicious!

Measure it accurately, please!

Let's go back to the beginning.

Oh! my aching corns.

It's such a sunny day.

Good morning chickadees!

Hmmm -- it sure is good!

A student's work is never done!

All I need is SOAP.

Your turn -- no cat this time.

I wonder where David is?

This should give him an extra lift.

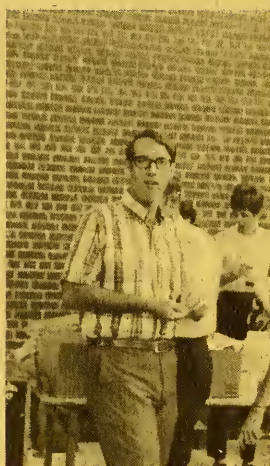

Who'll be next to take a dip?

Now girls, you know I can't swim.

FALL FESTIVAL

The Fall Festival is the annual money-raising project to help finance our yearbook. Much enthusiasm and school spirit arise as the girls work together to prepare food, entertainment booths, and an auction sale. The festival is highlighted by a dance following the carnival. The Fall Festival Queen is crowned at the dance.

Kathy Collins, Second Vice-president

Executive Council is composed of the officers of the SGA, president of each class, president of SNA, co-editors of the yearbook, and an elected member from the School of X-Ray. This committee acts as coordinator of student government standing committees and helps in planning Student Body activities.

JUDICIARY

C O U N C I L

Judiciary Council is our mother away from home. The purpose of this council is to interpret and enforce policies set up by the SGA. It is composed of the Second Vice-president who acts as chairman, two members from each class, and one from the School of X-Ray.

Kathy Collins, Chairman

POLICY COMMITTEE

Policy Committee is organized to maintain a workable constitution and by-laws, which provides a basis for a functional student handbook. This committee is headed by the First Vice-president of the Student Government.

Sylvia Potter and Marcia Olson, Junior Representatives; Vickie Almond, Chairman; Diane Link, Senior Representative; and Sharon Dallman, Freshman Representative

PUBLIC RELATIONS

It is the responsibility of the Public Relation Committee to acquaint the community with activities of our school. It also attempts to keep students aware of meetings and other activities within the school through the calendar-board.

WAYS AND MEANS

Hope Swayngin, Chairman; Martha Sink, Junior Representative; (not pictured) Harlette Gilmore and Dietra Huneycutt, Freshman Representatives

Ways and Means keep our monetary matters straight by sound financial planning. It proposes a budget each year and keeps an accurate record of money coming in as well as going out.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Judy Ritch, Freshman Representative; Marti Lain, Senior Representative; and Glenda Walker, Junior Representative.

STUDENT PERSONNEL

SPRING

SPRING OF HOPE

Her Spring comes next

... HOPE

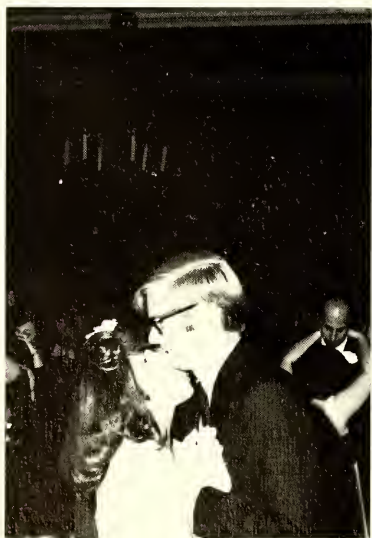

JUNIOR SENIOR

"Moonlight and Roses" was given by the industrious Juniors to the Seniors as their last tribute by the class as a whole. This lovely spring dance provided that little "touch of magic" which seemed to transform each girl into a charming Cinderella awaiting that exultant moment in her life when she would meet her prince.

A P P R E C I A T I O N

In grateful appreciation for all of the time you spend to help make Cabarrus a more comfortable place to live, we, the Senior Class of Cabarrus Memorial Hospital, honor you -- the maintenance men -- with this page of our annual.

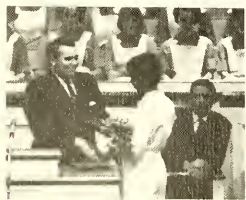

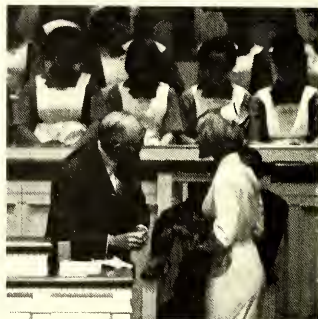

DEDICATION

A warm smile, an encouraging word . . . a sincere interest and willingness to give of herself . . . an unflinching devotion to help us attain our goals . . . someone who can find something good to brighten even the worst days -- we the Senior Class dedicate the 1970 Cap and Pin to you -- Mrs. Gladys Simpson.

GRADUATION 1969

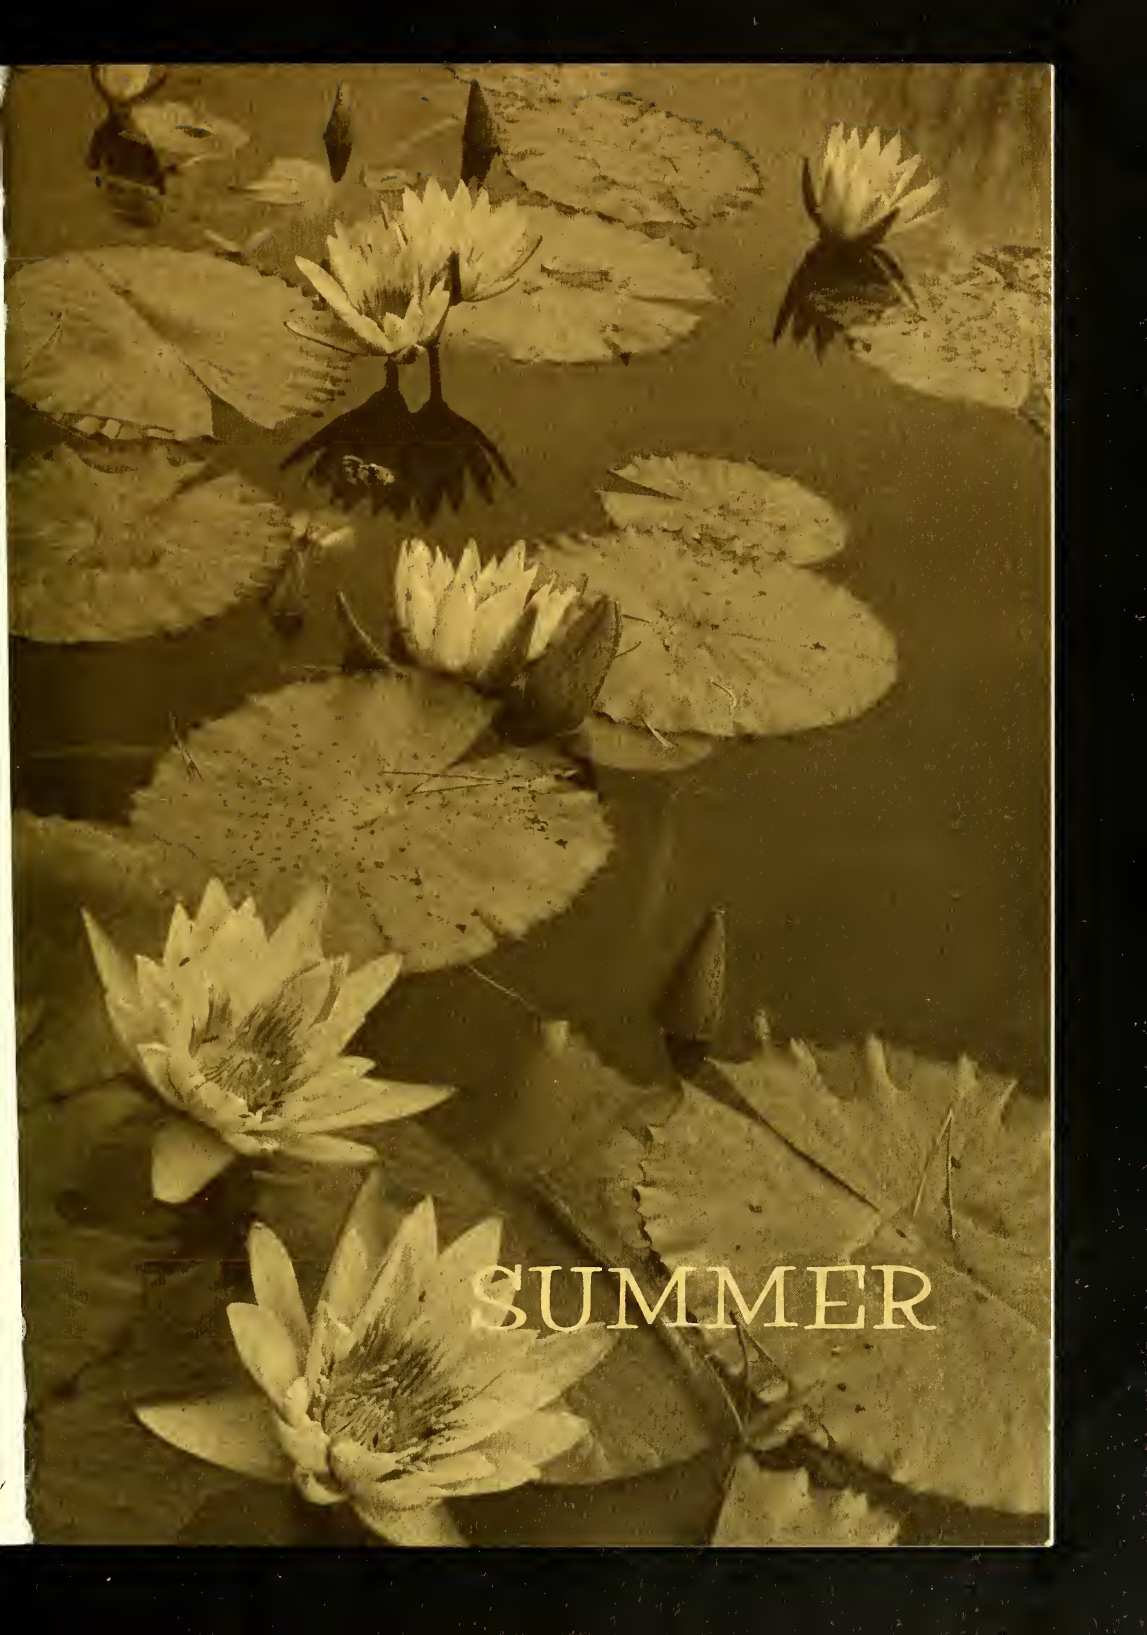

Yes, the seniors marched proudly with glistening eyes filled with tears of joy and yet a spark of sadness, down the aisle for their graduation exercises as music filled the entirety of the church. The climax had at last been reached; three years of struggle had come to an end. The future had flung her locked doors open challenging each girl to seek a new goal in life, that of being a shining example of the nursing profession.

As the school year drew nearer to a close our days became crowded with commemorative events. Mrs. Roach, who retired after twenty-five years of service, was honored by alumni, faculty, and students. The Senior Class dedicated the 1969 Cap and Pin to Mrs. Mills and honored Doctors Arey, Ashe, and Crosland at an impressive ceremony. Before graduation the seniors presented the school with a color television set for the rec. room and a sign to be placed at the main entrance of the school. Finally at the end of the summer, rising juniors and seniors received their well-earned stripes.

EDITOR'S

NOTE

We of the Annual Staff, hope you discovered the feel and meaning behind our theme -- A Woman For All Seasons -- she begins in the fall, the coming of the Freshman, in the winter the Juniors are busy with activities, in the spring, the Seniors prepare for graduation, and the summer is the waiting for new X-ray students -- during the whole time each of us has continued to grow in mind and body.

My deepest thanks go to the entire annual staff, without whose help this book would not be possible, but especially to Sylvia Potter and Susan Campbell. Without these two the 1970 CAP AND PIN would never have materialized.

A special thank you goes also to Mr. Wendell Dayton whose poem "A Woman For All Seasons" gave meaning to our book. We would like to express our appreciation to Mr. Pete Allen. We believe his patience and knowledge have guided us to the completion of a successful yearbook.

Mrs. Nancy Hood's and Miss Nancy Aycock's favorite words were "We'll Make It!" To them my warmest thank yous.

Many mistakes were made, I sincerely hope next year's staff will profit by these.

Beth Huneycutt

Thus, a struggle has come to an end.

What'ere the time
What'ere the reason
Withstand the try
One for all Seasons,
Woman.
